ABOUT THE ARTIST SERIES

For more than three decades, the Kenwood Vineyards Artist Series remains the ultimate expression of artistry and fine winemaking. This wine has truly become a coveted collectible. With a new label every year, and a wine that blends some of the finest Cabernet Sauvignon grown in Sonoma County, the release of every new vintage is an anticipated event. The 2010 vintage marks the 36th release of the Artist Series Cabernet Sauvignon.

Kenwood Vineyards redesigns the Artist Series label annually to showcase a work of art created by a notable artist. The collection features art from renowned figures such as Pablo Picasso, Henry Miller, Alexander Calder, commissioned artwork by David Lance Goines, Shepard Fairey, Sylvia Ji and most recently, a piece by Keith Wicks. The artwork has ranged in style from impressionist and romantic to modern and abstract. The variety of dimensions, shapes, orientations and backgrounds add drama to the Artist Series package, reinforcing the unique character of the collection.

SONOMA SERENITY
by Keith Wicks

Always moving forward, always looking for that split - second of light and intensity of color, internationally known artist, Keith Wicks, paints under the vast Sonoma sky or from his Sonoma studio. Working primarily in oils, he captures the essence of a moment with clarity and intensity rarely seen in impressionistic works. With "Sonoma Serenity" he harnesses the purity and energy of light – even as it dances in shadow. Whether reminiscent of the Renaissance or evoking the nostalgia of the more recent past, Keith Wicks masterfully preserves that precise and succinct instant when the viewer beholds a thing of beauty for the first time. With over thirty years of experience, he also devotes much of his time to teaching and is a founding member of the Sonoma Plein Air Foundation.
